Firewood Permits on State Endowment Lands

Our office will be issuing permits for cutting firewood on State endowment lands managed by the Pend Oreille Supervisory Area beginning the first week of May. A Permit can be purchased at 2550 Highway 2 West in Sandpoint. The cost is $5.00 per cord with a minimum required purchase of 4 cords ($20.00). Purchasers may buy up to 10 cords for personal use. Permits will be valid for 3 months from date of issue or October 31st, whichever occurs first.

During Closed Fire Season, May 10th – October 20th inclusive, (fire conditions may require an extension of this date and/or additional restrictions) the following fire tool requirements shall apply, Idaho Forestry Act Title 38:

Portable Power Saw. Any person using a portable power saw on forest land in the state shall have the following immediately available for the prevention and suppression of fire:

1. All saws must be equipped with a spark arrester.
2. A fully charged operable fire extinguisher of at least eight (8) ounce minimum capacity.
3. A serviceable round-pointed size zero (0) or larger shovel.
4. One (1) water container, capacity one (1) gallon or more.

For more information please call 263-5104.
